

GLADSTONE'S
LIBRARY

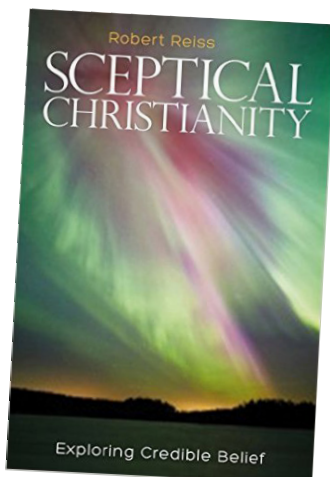

Sceptical Christianity: Exploring Credible Belief with Robert Reiss

Thursday, 20th - Saturday, 22nd October

How can Christianity remain a credible religion in our current era of scepticism? Reviving the debates begun by John Robinson and the demythologisation movement over half a century ago, Sceptical Christianity considers the main reasons behind people's religious scepticism and posits the question: what can be plausibly believed today?

Robert Reiss will bring immense comfort to the many who call themselves Christians, but who are embarrassed when they recite the creeds, claiming to believe what is incredible, and irritated when preached to by apparently half-witted clergy who never raise the question of truth or evidence.'

- Baroness Mary Warnock, Oxford

Includes free entry to Sceptical Christianity, a public lecture by Robert Reiss.

Residential prices start from £222, non-residential from £170.
Discount rates for clergy and students apply.

For more information or to book, please call 01244 532350 or email enquiries@gladlib.org.

Programme

Thursday, 20th October

5:30pm	Welcome and Introduction
6:45pm	Dinner
7:45pm	Lecture one: Why Scepticism?

Friday, 21st October

8am	Eucharist
8:30am	Breakfast
10am	Lecture two: Believing in God
11am	Coffee
11:30am	Question and Answer
12:15pm	Lunch
	Free afternoon
5pm	Lecture three: Believing in Jesus Christ
6:45pm	Dinner
7:45pm	Film: Inherit the Wind (Stanley Kramer, 1960, 128mins)

Saturday, 22nd October

8am	Eucharist
8:30am	Breakfast
10am	Lecture four: Salvation and Eschatology
11am	Coffee
11:30am	Question and Answer
12:15pm	Lunch
3pm	Public lecture: Sceptical Christianity
4pm	Tea and depart